HULL:

Danny Boy is an all steel 47ft traditional stern style narrowboat built by Stowe Hill Marine in 1988. The vessel was constructed using 12/6/5/3 mm plate the vessel has a forward well deck with gas lockers and storage in the bow accessible via a door. The cratch board drops down and forms a small table.

This is covered by a new canvass cratch cover there are also back and side hatch covers all new in 2019. To the stern is a short traditional style aft deck.

She was last blacked and surveyed in June 2019. (A copy of the survey is available to view on request in the office)
