Length
Style	Semi-Traditional

HULL:

With one owner from new her shell was built by Michael Cull often known to the trade as Micky. Believed to be built for 10/6/4 steel, she is painted in an unusual colour scheme, and has curved gold anodised windows, which again make it a little different from normal. She was last blacked in 2021 and again it is believed that she has 3 anodes on each side. The bow is open with solid steel front doors while she has a large semi Trad Stern with a small storage area and access to the stern gland. Height to Cabin Centre 6.1ft/1.87m

FIT OUT:

She is insulated with rockwool and lined with Parana pine T & G and ash panels, the floor is also ash.

REAR CABIN (6.2ft/1.9m):

Entrance to the boat is predominantly from the large semi trad area. This is not your traditional rear cabin as it has two fixed single bunks along with a wardrobe and a vanity unit with sink.

ENGINE ROOM (3.9ft/1.2m)& ELECTRICS, (Height 1.80m/5.9ft):

Has a Kingfisher KD26. She has a single alternator (64 amps) with 1 starter and 1 domestic battery. Day tank and two sets of side doors along with a pigeon box on the roof. There is a gas on demand water heater while an Eberspaecher diesel unit provides warm air heating

BATHROOM (3.2ft/1m):

Set in a side cabin is the bathroom. With a large unit to one side with sink set in to white tiles with blue decoration.. There is a dump though toilet and a tiled shower with glazed door.

BEDROOM (4.9ft/1.5m):

There is a full height wardrobe with a cross bed, the end of which lifts up, to allow access down the boat towards the galley.

GALLEY (6.5ft/2m):

The "U" shaped galley has a floor standing cooker with oven, grill and 4 burner hob. On the bulk head behind is a narrow set of open shelves. There is an Electrolux gas fridge and a stainless steel sink and drainer. There are a number of bespoke units and an open shelving unit separating the galley from the saloon, the counter top and splash back are covered in square green tiles. Opposite is a set of side doors decorated with traditional roses with shelves below the gunwale.

SALOON (8.5ft/2.6m):

The galley has a cupboard and some open shelves to one side. The banquet seating is arranged in an L shape and there is a small and large table which can be used depending on the purpose. This gives the space a cosy feel.
